Animal art and book sale in Chester will support New Jersey AniMeals

Published: May 6th, 7:03 AM

Animal artists and authors are coming to together to support New Jersey AniMeals during Animal Arts and Letters, an art and book sale hosted by Well Bred: The Healthy Pet Market Place, will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 15, at 25 Main Street in Chester.

As a special highlight of the day, David Ohlerking a 15-minute, classically trained artist will be on hand to paint portraits of customers' pets on the spot. Other participants in Animal Arts and Letters are: Jerilyn Weber, animal portrait artist; Colby Krolak, wildlife artist; Loren Spiotta-DiMare, pet and picture book author; Diana Tuorto, equine book author; Sue Kenny, photographer; and Wend Eld of Crazy Over Animals, personalized pet photo gifts.

About AniMeals

New Jersey AniMeals is a volunteer program that delivers dog and cat food plus kitty litter to shut-ins, low income and disabled residents. AniMeals was introduced in 1984 when a California-based Meals On Wheels identified the need for a service to assist clients in caring for their pets. They approached the Helen Woodward Center, a non-profit organization, to develop and implement the program which continues to this day. AniMeals is now being duplicated in other states. The New Jersey program began operation in Hunterdon County in September 2007. Plans are underway to expand the program into neighboring Counties.

Representatives from NJ AniMeals will be on hand to answer questions and accept pet food donations. The event will be held outdoors with a rain date of Sunday, May 16.

For more information about the event call Well Bred at (908) 879-6569. For more information about NJ AniMeals call (908) 752-1927 or e-mail at newjerseyanimеals@yahoo.com.
