

Horse News Bookshelf

Here are some new books by local authors. These books have not been reviewed by Horse News.

My Desert Sun

By Diana Tuorto

Diana Tuorto of Stanhope, N.J. has released her latest middle-grade children's novel, My Desert Sun. Proceeds from each sale will be donated to two California wild horse rescues: Life-savers Wild Horse Rescue and Return to Freedom.

My Desert Sun is told from the point-of-view of Cayuse, a young, free-spirited mustang that lives in the desert and mountains of the American Southwest. It is appropriate for readers age 8 to 14.

Tuorto began writing the novel at age 12, inspired by a television special on mustangs.

The book will also be available for sale on-line at Amazon.com, Alibris.com, and Abebooks.com or e-mail Tuorto at lunar-aria@yaho.com to order a copy for $15, which includes shipping and personalized autographs.

Tuorto's other novels, Janie's New Legs and Luck of the Draw have raised more than $2,000 for the Somerset Hills Handicapped Riding Center, ReRun, Inc., and other charities.

For more information see cayuse.8k.com.