

The animal rescue round-up

BY DIANA TUORTO

Horse Rescue United, Inc.

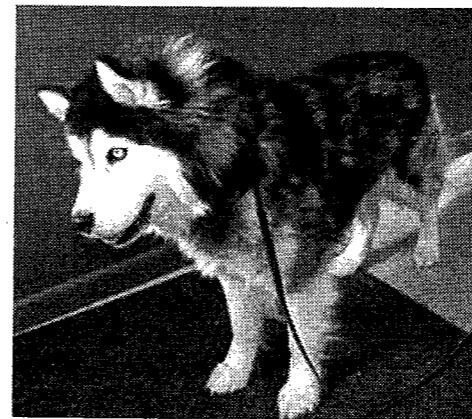

Cooper is an 11-year-old 15.1 hand Standardbred gelding who was saved from slaughter. He appears to be a former Amish horse. Cooper is a very quiet, calm and well-mannered boy. He is a sweet horse and perfect for trail or pleasure riding for advanced beginner to intermediate riders.

Jessica is a 17-year-old 14.2 hand Standardbred mare who was also saved from slaughter. She was most likely abused and possibly a broodmare. She is learning to trust again and making great progress. Jessica requires an advanced rider for light trail or pleasure riding or could make a nice pasture pet. Jessica gets along great with Cooper and others.

HRU horses are available for adoption on 30 day trials within the United States for $250 to approved homes. Visit www.horserescueunited.org to see their current list of horses in need of homes and sponsors and other fundraisers. For more information, email lunar_aradia@yahoo.com or call 609-481-8561.

Duke

Palmer

Eleventh Hour Rescue

Duke is a nearly 5-year-old Lab/Rottweiler mix. His family could no longer care for him and he now needs a new home. Duke is very gentle and loving. Although he's an enthusiastic greeter to new visitors, he quickly settles down. He plays well with children and is very tolerant of whatever comes his way.

Duke loves to play with other dogs, tennis balls, and doesn't mind the company of a cat. He walks well on a leash, enjoys a nice car ride, and is also house and crate trained.

To learn more about Duke and Eleventh Hour's other dogs for adoption, visit www.ehrdogs.org or email eleventhhrrescue@aol.com.

Noah's Ark Animal Welfare Association

Kitty is a 6-year-old Torti cat who was surrendered because her owner could no longer care for her. Kitty doesn't have any bad habits and likes to use a scratching post. She likes children, but not dogs. Kitty is visually impaired, but is not blind. She is a lap cat and loves to be brushed.

Palmer is a 5-year-old Alaskan Malamute who was found wandering loose and left unclaimed. He is a big sweetheart who is ready for a new home.
