Tiger is a 2-year-old medium sized Pit Bull/Mountain Cur mix. He is very energetic and loves to play with other dogs. Tiger is well-behaved and loves belly rubs. He is a happy guy who always has a big smile on his face.

Ginger is a 5-year-old plump Catahoula Leopard mix princess who is currently enrolled in a special health and fitness program at Morris Animal Inn of Morristown, which is designed to improve a dog's overall health with basic weight loss as a key component. Ginger gets to swim, workout on a treadmill, and eat a healthy diet. She has been making good progress losing weight. In the past, Ginger was used solely as a breeding mom for a puppy mill. No longer wanted, she was abandoned at a shelter and left to die. She has lots of love to give and is ready for a home.

Mona is a 3-year-old kitty who is now spayed and up-to-date on shots. She was found in the middle of the woods living with several homeless people. They were unable to care for her properly and she was surrendered. She loves to be around people and will follow you everywhere. Mona also gets along well with other cats.

Coming Home Rescue

Dalton is a one year-old semi-long-haired chi mix. He is housebroken and good with everyone. Dalton is a sweet dog and would work in any setting that knows the chi breed.

Lexie is a one-year-old beautiful treeing walker coon hound mix. She will probably fill out to be about 60 pounds. Lexie is very sweet and at first very shy, but not shy in the least around other dogs. She loves learning from and playing with her foster brother. Lexie will need a family that will give her time to warm up to them; once she does, she is a typical goofy, loving hound. She is very food motivated, which will help with training, and is housebroken, crate trained, and has no problem sharing toys and balls with her foster brother. Rope toys and kongs are two favorites, although a simple tennis ball is enough to keep her happy. Lexie does need some work on a leash; she is very manageable but does get scared of all the new sights and sounds she encounters on a walk. Lexie would make a great addition to any family, especially one looking for an additional dog.

Before coming to Noah's Ark, Mama had a litter of kittens and they were later adopted out. She's a very friendly cat and is allowed to go outside from the cat colony, which she loves. Both Mama and Frank are spayed/neutered and up-to-date on shots.
